DON'T MISS OUR FIRST EVENT FOR AUTHORS AND READERS

Meet Local Authors at the Mount Vernon Public Library With An Opportunity to Purchase New and Exciting Literature!

Come meet your local Mount Vernon authors! Featuring book signings and panel discussions throughout the library. Don't miss this historic event if you're looking for something different to read or just want to expand your on your literary consumption, drop by and see what the authors have to offer. This event is co-sponsored by Mount Vernon Arts and Culture, Inc.

With over 20 authors participating covering a wide range of genres you will have the opportunity to converse with the author to obtain their literary point of view and hear what was behind their thoughts when writing their pieces. This Author Fair has sparked a lot of interest amongst authors and is sure to grow even larger next year. Participating authors include Peter Serrill, Seymour Horstic, Vanessa Richardson Blagley, Karen Leedy, Dr. Robert Blakemore, Georgia Mae McDowell, Dr. John R. Heward, Leslie Booker and Vanessa Blagley.

While you're out, make sure to check out the reading material and videos we have on our shelves. For more info please contact Nishan Tepik @ntepik@mvpl.org 914-609-8543 ext. 228.

CHILDRENS ACTIVITIES ALSO GOING ON THIS SATURDAY

GIRLS CAN! GIRLS DO! COLORING EVENT WITH AUTHOR
Saturday, October 7, 2017 11:00am - 1:00pm
Children's Room

For children, age 6-11 as well as their caregivers. While coloring with this book, girls from age 6-11 will experience the positive benefits of affirmation and learn about meditation. The book is filled with images of girls from various cultures sharing messages of self-love and self-acceptance.

Author, Elly Blanco-Rowe will also lead the children through a short meditation activity and show them how to practice affirmations. Although the program is designed for girls, boys are more than welcome to participate! Books will be available to purchase. Registration is required.

Call 914-666-1840, ext. 211 or come by the Children's Reference Desk to sign up.
